SUBTERRANEAN SIDE SHOW

SSS JUCO CAFETERIA ISSUE

Vol. I Monday, May 25, 1970
No. 39 Cultural Cinema Club

journalistic home-ecchonomics

In this special Juco cafeteria issue, the SSS, as in its past special issues on "why go to college," law and order, the bell, and press lampoon, presents yet another biased and unfair attack on an institution without any reason or point of correction. However, we note that this is the first time we have attacked anything that is able to attack us back. In what must seem to be our final attempt of the year to get thrown out of school, the SSS presents its own brand of journalistic home ecch-onomics with the warning that a satiric intent is meant, and that reference to persons living, dead, or in between, is strictly coincidental.

final issue next week

SUB SS SUMMER ISSUES

The Subterranean Side Show, JJC's only newspaper, will publish two "summer special" issues. These issues, released July 1 and August 1, will be 10 pages in length and will contain no advertisements or "news"; rather, a combination of humor, satire, and political issues of the day will be featured. Already planned is a second look at the Joliet Harold Snooze, a copy of the South Rockdale J.C. Free Press, looks at "independance" day, and an interview with moon men. These issues will be sold on a subscription basis, 25¢ each or 50¢ for both. A table set up in the union today from 9-10 a.m. and from 12-1 p.m. will take orders, or subscribers may mail 50¢ to Jim Ridings, 1619 Rowell Ave, Joliet Ill 60433, or may see JR personally.

DIALOGUE FOR TWO

By John R. Shields

"Say, I was at a board meeting a couple of weeks ago and some guy said the cafeteria is breaking even."

"That cant be! Gambling's not allowed in the union."

"No, dummy! He meant enough people were going in and buying enough stuff to pay the help."

"Oh. How many?"

"How many what?"

"How many people have been patronizing the joint?"

"Over 500 a day, as I recall."

"Really?" Is that epidemic proportions?"

Yes, folks and students, this is it...only finals week to go...as with most things, if you look at your calendar, it went fast...if you look at your accomplishments, you could use a couple more weeks...HARD HATS AND HEADS DEPT: What did people do before backlash was invented?...see where 200 or so construction workers rioted in Manhatten over student demonstrations, using their lunch hours to promote respect for the flag... Lindsay was angered because the police had advance information of the riot, and failed to act, arresting only 6 in the end...meanwhile 113 students at Ypsilanti were arrested and suspended from school for violating a curfew...3 cheers for the scales of justice...BROWNSHIRTS AND BLUE COLLARS DEPT: So, the man who was going to bring us together has managed to make just the right moves to pull us apart, and its getting harder every day not to agree with those alarmists who predict a complete rift and split that will really see blood flow on the streets... stereotyping abounds, clogging up any possible communications channels, and no one is innocent of it, including you and me. I actually had a nice chat with a Chicago cop the other day, yet found myself being suspicious of him as we approached each other...cries of "commie" and "fascist pig" get no one anywhere, and a nation supossedly founded on the will of the majority swings like a wild pendulum from one tiny minority to another...if it was fastened solidly at the top, there might be some space for breathing easier, but like the man says, the time is ripe for a strong charismatic leader...let's hope he's got better values than a Hitler... RUBY SLIPPERS DEPT: Gone to Oz now is Billie Burke, 84, which leaves a scarecrow and a tin man and a bunch of munchkins...she was Glenda, you'll recall, the Good Witch of the North...PROOF POSITIVE DEPT: We all agreed that Ahtu laid an egg with its appearance on campus, now we have the eggshells to prove it...which begs the question, did anyone let one slip and catch ol' Ahtu on its backswing?...BEST EVENTS DEPT: Mr. Julian Bond at Pershing auditorium Wednesday promises to be the most worthwhile event of the year for all of you, but you'll probably miss it, along with your own funeral...HOW MANY MORE DEPT: Add two at Jackson State...I wonder if these are being added to the weekly casualty counts from the Indochina war?...LITTLE KNOWN FACTS DEPT: I am informed that Agnew (agneau) in French means lamb...pass the artichokes and mint jelly please...

DIALOGUE FOR TWO

BY John R. Shields

"Hey, let's go get something to eat."

"Okay, where?"

"The cafeteria, where else?"

"You buying?"

"Right, I should fill your gut?"

"Okay, just putting you on. But I aint going in there."

"Why not?"

"I blew a whole paycheck on a hamburger in there last week."

"Cmon, you expect me to buy that?" "Well, I guess I stretched it some." "I should think so." "Actually, it was a hamburger and french fry."

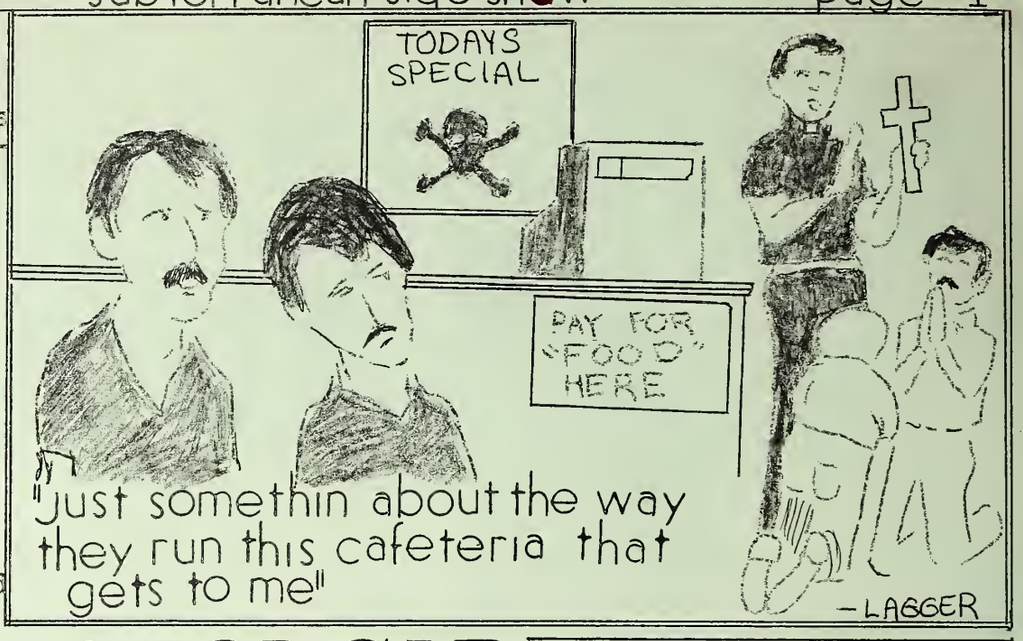
DIALOGUE FOR TWO
By John R. Shields

"Listen, do you always have to gripe and complain about everything?"
"No."
"Well, cant you find anything good about the cafeteria?"
"Sure. It's clean, it's neat, the food isnt bad, and the workers are courteous enough."
"So how come you dont go in there more often?"
"Simple. I cant afford the atmosphere."



NEW PLANS FOR CAF.

By Jim Ridings

The independent wire service, which is carried by both the Subterranean Side Show and the South Rockdale JC Free Press, has prodouced some interesting news over the wire this week. A highly secret meeting between the head chefs at JJC and SRJC will soon produce one of the biggest PR publicity campaigns in the history of restaurants. A joint Grand Opening celebration is planned, with car hops and free Bromo seltzer to customers. Also in the news: SRJC will sponsor a "You Name It" contest. Without looking at the board, by sense of taste only, guess the "special" of the day. Is it fish... filet...or fowl? (definitely foul!) Any way you guess, you're probably right; it's "last-weeks-meals--stew." Winners get one weeks free food at Juco; losers get two weeks free food at Juco. Note: SRJC and JJC will not be responsible for damages, such as to the stomach or any of the senses.

It was recently discovered that SRJC cooks had been serving dishwater in place of soup for 2 weeks. However, when the replacement back to the soup was made, students objected. It seems they preferred the dishwater to the soup.

Customer: Waiter, there's a fly in my ice cream.
Waiter: Let him freeze to death. That'll teach him.

Diner: Waiter, I havent tasted any chicken in this sandwich yet.
Waiter: Take another bite.
Diner: Still no chicken.
Waiter: You musta gone right past it.

Teacher: Listen here, young man, are you the teacher of this class?
Student: No sir, I'm not.
Teacher: Then dont talk like an idiot.

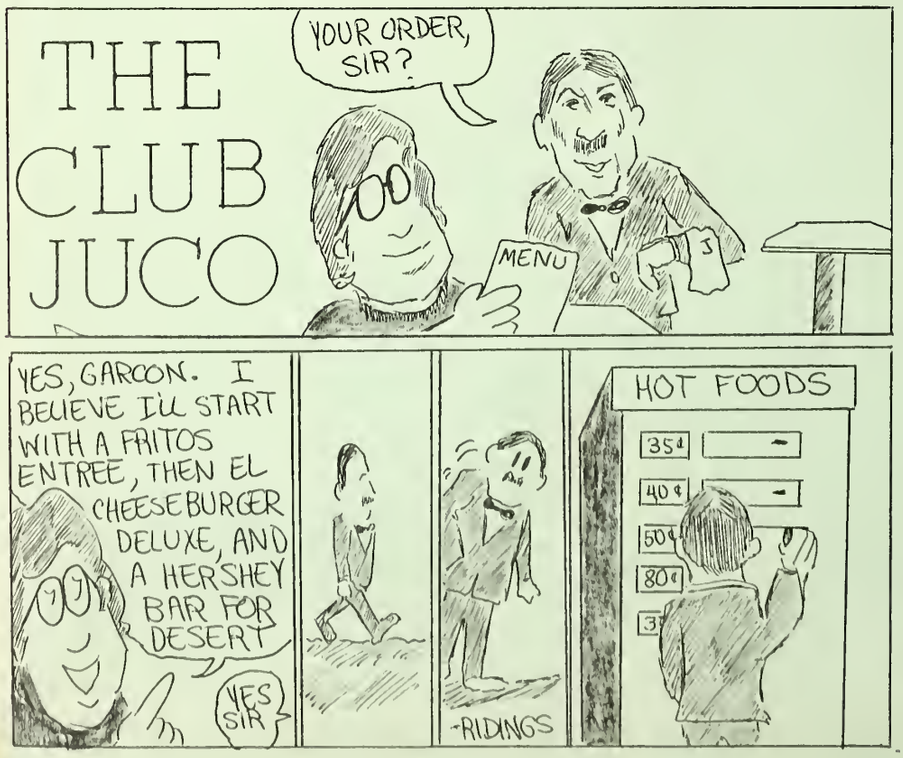
Diner: Do you serve fish?
Waiter: Yes, we serve everyone.

Diner: Have I left anything?
Waiter: No sir, not even a nickel.

Have you tried French Sex Pot Salad...thats tomato with very little dressing...

"Gimme a quarters worth of rat poison."
"Do you wanna take it with you?"
"Naw, I'll send the rats in after it."

Father: When I was a boy, I thought nothing of a ten mile walk.
Son: Well, I dont think so much of it myself.

DIALOGUE FOR TWO
By John Shields


"How come they charge so much in there?"
"Well, they got a lot of overhead."
"No kiddin'?"
"Yeah. You got the cooks and other folks, and the buns and grease too."
"Nobody likes a smart ass!"
"What do they charge for that?
